The Usual Beginning:	2
Third Antiphon	2
Troparia.....	4
Prokimena	4
Epistle	5
The Alleluia Verses	5
The Gospel.....	6
Kontakia.....	7
Megalynarion	7

The Usual Beginning:

Instead of the usual "O Come let us worship" we sing "Christ is risen" 3 times

Christ is risen from the dead, trampling down death by death, and on those in the tombs, bestowing life. (Thrice)

Third Antiphon

The Third antiphon is sung by singing a verse from the Beatitudes from Matthew's gospel, and then adding a hymn that is specific to the day being celebrated. If there are two people, it's very useful to have one person saying the verses from the Beatitudes, and another to sing the hymns. Alternatively, people know how to sing together everybody can sing it together. If you don't sing, then you may chant this.

Note: Troparia are read between these verses, as appointed by the typikon.

*Beatitude Verses: 4 of the Resurrection, and 4 from Ode 6 from the Pentecostarion. The troparia to be read are provided below, and begin after the psalm verse "Blessed are the merciful, * for they shall obtain mercy".*

*The reader reads the Psalm verses one after the other until the verse: "Blessed are the merciful, * for they shall obtain mercy", at which point the Troparia are said. One Troparion is said after each Psalm verse, and also after the verse "Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit", and the last troparion is said after "Both now and ever and unto the ages of ages, amen".*

In Thy kingdom remember us, O Lord, * when Thou comest in Thy kingdom.

Blessed are the poor in spirit, * for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they that mourn, * for they shall be comforted.

Blessed are the meek, * for they shall inherit the earth.

Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after righteousness, * for they shall be filled.

Blessed are the merciful, * for they shall obtain mercy.

[If there are 8 troparia verses, the first one should be chanted (read) now.]

1. Remember us also, O Compassionate One, even as Thou didst remember the thief, in the Kingdom of the Heavens.

2 Typika – Variable Parts for Sunday of the Myrrhbearing women, 3rd Sunday of Pascha

Blessed are the pure in heart, * for they shall see God.

2. The tree drove out Adam, and the Cross led the thief up into the Kingdom of the Heavens.

Blessed are the peacemakers, * for they shall be called the sons of God.

3. The grave received Thee, O Savior, Who didst empty the graves and who, as God, didst grant life unto the dead.

Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake, * for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

4. O Glorious Apostles of Christ, entreat Him fervently that He save us from perils.

Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, * and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

5. Having wrapped Thee in linen, O Christ, the noble Joseph laid Thee in a tomb; and having anointed with myrrh the fallen temple of Thy Body, he rolled a great stone before the sepulchre.

Rejoice, and be exceeding glad, * for great is your reward in the heavens.

6. O ye myrrh-bearing women, why hasten ye now? Why bring ye myrrh unto the Living One? Christ is risen, as He foretold. Let your tears cease and be changed into joy.

Glory to the Father, * and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

7. O ye faithful, let us praise the Trinity in Unity, glorifying the Father with the Son, and the Spirit Who is consubstantial with the Son, and Who with the Father is co-beginningless and everlasting God.

Both now and ever, * and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

8. Like a vineyard didst thou conceive untilld in thy womb the Cluster of grapes wherefrom, like wine, there pour forth for us torrents of immortality, even eternal life Blessed are the peacemakers, * for they shall be called the sons of God.

Troparia

Tone 2: When Thou didst descend unto death, O Life Immortal, * then didst Thou slay Hades with the lightning of Thy Divinity. * And when Thou didst also raise the dead out of the nethermost depths, * all the Hosts of the heavens cried out: * O Life-giver, Christ our God, glory be to Thee.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

Tone 2: The noble Joseph, taking Thine immaculate Body down from the Tree, and having wrapped It in pure linen and spices, laid It in a new tomb. But on the third day Thou didst arise, O Lord, granting to the world great mercy.

Both now and ever, and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

Tone 2: Unto the myrrh-bearing women did the angel cry out as he stood by the tomb: Myrrh is meet for the dead, but Christ hath proved to be a stranger to corruption. But cry out: The Lord is risen, granting to the world great mercy.

Prokimena

[The prokimena, as appointed by the Typikon]

Reader: The Prokimenon in the 6th Tone: Save, O Lord, Thy people and bless Thine inheritance.

Choir: Save, O Lord, Thy people and bless Thine inheritance.

Reader: Unto Thee, O Lord, Will I cry; O my God, be not silent unto me.

Choir: Save, O Lord, Thy people and bless Thine inheritance.

Reader: Save, O Lord, Thy people.

Choir: And bless Thine inheritance.

Epistle

Reader: The Reading is from the Acts of the Holy Apostles:

[Acts 6:1-7]

1 And in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the Grecians against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministration. 2 Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables. 3 Wherefore, brethren, look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business. 4 But we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word. 5 And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch: 6 Whom they set before the apostles: and when they had prayed, they laid their hands on them. 7 And the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly; and a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith.

The Alleluia Verses

Then the verses are read and the choir sings Alleluia in the appropriate tone, as at a liturgy.

There are only 2 alleluia verses, therefore the reader waits for the choir's response after he announced the Alleluia verses

Reader: Alleluia in the 8th Tone:

Choir: Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

Reader: Thou hast been gracious, O Lord, unto Thy land; Thou hast turned back the captivity of Jacob..

Choir: Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

Reader: Mercy and truth are met together, righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

Choir: Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

The Gospel

Reader: The Reading is from the Holy Gospel according to St. Mark

Choir: Glory to Thee, O Lord, Glory to Thee!

The Reader reads the appropriate Gospel selection in a normal voice.

Gospel [Mark 15:43-16:8]

43 Joseph of Arimathaea, an honourable counsellor, which also waited for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly unto Pilate, and craved the body of Jesus. 44 And Pilate marvelled if he were already dead: and calling unto him the centurion, he asked him whether he had been any while dead. 45 And when he knew it of the centurion, he gave the body to Joseph. 46 And he bought fine linen, and took him down, and wrapped him in the linen, and laid him in a sepulchre which was hewn out of a rock, and rolled a stone unto the door of the sepulchre. 47 And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses beheld where he was laid. 1 And when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, had bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him. 2 And very early in the morning the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun. 3 And they said among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre? 4 And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away: for it was very great. 5 And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they were affrighted. 6 And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted: Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, which was crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold the place where they laid him. 7 But go your way, tell his disciples and Peter that he goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, as he said unto you. 8 And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre; for they trembled and were amazed: neither said they any thing to any man; for they were afraid.

Choir: Glory to Thee, O Lord, Glory to Thee!

Kontakia

Glory to the Father, * and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit.

Tone 2: When Thou didst cry, Rejoice, unto the myrrh-bearers, Thou didst make the lamentation of Eve the first mother to cease by Thy Resurrection, O Christ God. And Thou didst bid Thine apostles to preach: The Savior is risen from the grave.

Both now and ever, * and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

Tone 8: Thou didst descend into the tomb, O Immortal, * Thou didst destroy the power of death. * In victory didst Thou arise, O Christ God, * proclaiming “Rejoice!” to the myrrh-bearing women; * granting peace to Thine apostles, * and bestowing resurrection on the fallen.

Megalynarion

Instead of “It is truly meet...” we chant the Irmos of the 9th Ode of the Canon of the feast, first Tone:

Refrain: The angel cried unto her that is full of grace: Rejoice, O pure Virgin! And again I say, rejoice! For thy Son is risen from the grave on the third day, and hath raised the dead, O ye people, be joyful!

Irmos: Shine, shine, O new Jerusalem, for the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee; dance now and be glad, O Zion, and do thou exult, O pure Theotokos, in the arising of Him Whom thou didst bear.
