

A Prayer during temptation,
and a renewal of baptismal vows.

Lord Jesus Christ! My whole being belongs to Thee, from the top of my head to the tips of my toes: my brain, heart, soul and nious, my arms and hands, legs and feet, all my body members, all of my senses, and all of my thoughts and actions.

Take away any authority Satan has over me,

(various addictions and sins can be mentioned here)

and unite my whole self to Thee.

And by Thy grace, I renew my baptismal pledges to renounce Satan, and all his works, and all his angels, and all his service, and all his pride, from this moment, to struggle to unite my whole self to Thee. Amen.

A Prayer during temptation,
and a renewal of baptismal vows.

Lord Jesus Christ! My whole being belongs to Thee, from the top of my head to the tips of my toes: my brain, heart, soul and nious, my arms and hands, legs and feet, all my body members, all of my senses, and all of my thoughts and actions.

Take away any authority Satan has over me,

(various addictions and sins can be mentioned here)

and unite my whole self to Thee.

And by Thy grace, I renew my baptismal pledges to renounce Satan, and all his works, and all his angels, and all his service, and all his pride, from this moment, to struggle to unite my whole self to Thee. Amen.

A Prayer during temptation,
and a renewal of baptismal vows.

Lord Jesus Christ! My whole being belongs to Thee, from the top of my head to the tips of my toes: my brain, heart, soul and nious, my arms and hands, legs and feet, all my body members, all of my senses, and all of my thoughts and actions.

Take away any authority Satan has over me,

(various addictions and sins can be mentioned here)

and unite my whole self to Thee.

And by Thy grace, I renew my baptismal pledges to renounce Satan, and all his works, and all his angels, and all his service, and all his pride, from this moment, to struggle to unite my whole self to Thee. Amen.

A Prayer during temptation,
and a renewal of baptismal vows.

Lord Jesus Christ! My whole being belongs to Thee, from the top of my head to the tips of my toes: my brain, heart, soul and nious, my arms and hands, legs and feet, all my body members, all of my senses, and all of my thoughts and actions.

Take away any authority Satan has over me,

(various addictions and sins can be mentioned here)

and unite my whole self to Thee.

And by Thy grace, I renew my baptismal pledges to renounce Satan, and all his works, and all his angels, and all his service, and all his pride, from this moment, to struggle to unite my whole self to Thee. Amen.

One may modify this prayer to be very personal about the ways in which Satan has enslaved you. For example (specify anything that is an ongoing problem for you), "Take away any authority Satan has over me... such as my negative thoughts, and anger, and abuse of alcohol, and looking at pornography and doing unclean things, and anxiety and depression and despondency..."

We may also specify any body parts and actions which participate in sin, such as the stomach if we suffer from gluttony or the eyes if we look inappropriately at things , or speech if we find ourselves often sinning with our words, etc, but of course, we should take care of not to mention some parts of the body because of modesty and rather to allow the phrase in the prayer, "all my body members", and "all of my thoughts and actions" to suffice.

Anyone can say this prayer, daily as part of their rule, and also, especially when they have some problem with sin and passions, whether it be an ongoing addiction or some terrible, unclean sin, or even just problems with pride and irritation and laziness, etc.

Every time we sin, we are reneging on our baptismal vows, and every sin we commit gives Satan rights over us. We allow him to dominate us to a greater or lesser extent because of our sins and passions, but his dominance is lessened by repentance, and completely nullified when we complete our repentance with God's grace.

This card: <http://www.orthodox.net/trebnic/a-prayer-during--temptation-and-renewal-of-baptismal-vows-card.pdf>
Explanation: <http://www.orthodox.net/trebnic/a-prayer-during--temptation-and-renewal-of-baptismal-vows.pdf>

One may modify this prayer to be very personal about the ways in which Satan has enslaved you. For example (specify anything that is an ongoing problem for you), "Take away any authority Satan has over me... such as my negative thoughts, and anger, and abuse of alcohol, and looking at pornography and doing unclean things, and anxiety and depression and despondency..."

We may also specify any body parts and actions which participate in sin, such as the stomach if we suffer from gluttony or the eyes if we look inappropriately at things , or speech if we find ourselves often sinning with our words, etc, but of course, we should take care of not to mention some parts of the body because of modesty and rather to allow the phrase in the prayer, "all my body members", and "all of my thoughts and actions" to suffice.

Anyone can say this prayer, daily as part of their rule, and also, especially when they have some problem with sin and passions, whether it be an ongoing addiction or some terrible, unclean sin, or even just problems with pride and irritation and laziness, etc.

Every time we sin, we are reneging on our baptismal vows, and every sin we commit gives Satan rights over us. We allow him to dominate us to a greater or lesser extent because of our sins and passions, but his dominance is lessened by repentance, and completely nullified when we complete our repentance with God's grace.

This card: <http://www.orthodox.net/trebnic/a-prayer-during--temptation-and-renewal-of-baptismal-vows-card.pdf>
Explanation: <http://www.orthodox.net/trebnic/a-prayer-during--temptation-and-renewal-of-baptismal-vows.pdf>

One may modify this prayer to be very personal about the ways in which Satan has enslaved you. For example (specify anything that is an ongoing problem for you), "Take away any authority Satan has over me... such as my negative thoughts, and anger, and abuse of alcohol, and looking at pornography and doing unclean things, and anxiety and depression and despondency..."

We may also specify any body parts and actions which participate in sin, such as the stomach if we suffer from gluttony or the eyes if we look inappropriately at things , or speech if we find ourselves often sinning with our words, etc, but of course, we should take care of not to mention some parts of the body because of modesty and rather to allow the phrase in the prayer, "all my body members", and "all of my thoughts and actions" to suffice.

Anyone can say this prayer, daily as part of their rule, and also, especially when they have some problem with sin and passions, whether it be an ongoing addiction or some terrible, unclean sin, or even just problems with pride and irritation and laziness, etc.

Every time we sin, we are reneging on our baptismal vows, and every sin we commit gives Satan rights over us. We allow him to dominate us to a greater or lesser extent because of our sins and passions, but his dominance is lessened by repentance, and completely nullified when we complete our repentance with God's grace.

This card: <http://www.orthodox.net/trebnic/a-prayer-during--temptation-and-renewal-of-baptismal-vows-card.pdf>
Explanation: <http://www.orthodox.net/trebnic/a-prayer-during--temptation-and-renewal-of-baptismal-vows.pdf>

One may modify this prayer to be very personal about the ways in which Satan has enslaved you. For example (specify anything that is an ongoing problem for you), "Take away any authority Satan has over me... such as my negative thoughts, and anger, and abuse of alcohol, and looking at pornography and doing unclean things, and anxiety and depression and despondency..."

We may also specify any body parts and actions which participate in sin, such as the stomach if we suffer from gluttony or the eyes if we look inappropriately at things , or speech if we find ourselves often sinning with our words, etc, but of course, we should take care of not to mention some parts of the body because of modesty and rather to allow the phrase in the prayer, "all my body members", and "all of my thoughts and actions" to suffice.

Anyone can say this prayer, daily as part of their rule, and also, especially when they have some problem with sin and passions, whether it be an ongoing addiction or some terrible, unclean sin, or even just problems with pride and irritation and laziness, etc.

Every time we sin, we are reneging on our baptismal vows, and every sin we commit gives Satan rights over us. We allow him to dominate us to a greater or lesser extent because of our sins and passions, but his dominance is lessened by repentance, and completely nullified when we complete our repentance with God's grace.

This card: <http://www.orthodox.net/trebnic/a-prayer-during--temptation-and-renewal-of-baptismal-vows-card.pdf>
Explanation: <http://www.orthodox.net/trebnic/a-prayer-during--temptation-and-renewal-of-baptismal-vows.pdf>