will give you rest. ²⁹"Take up My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am meek and humble in heart; and ye shall find rest to your souls. ³⁰"For My yoke is good and My burden is light."

³⁰ Luke 6:20-26 "And He lifted up His eyes to His disciples, and began to say: "Blessed are the poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. ²¹"Blessed are ye who hunger now, for ye shall be filled. Blessed are ye who weep now, for ye shall laugh. ²²"Blessed are ye whenever men hate you, and whenever they separate you, and reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, on account of the Son of Man. ²³"Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, for behold, your reward is great in the heavens; for according to these things their fathers were doing to the prophets.

²⁴"But woe to you, the rich! For ye are receiving in full your consolation. ²⁵"Woe to you who have been filled, for ye shall hunger. Woe to you who laugh now, for ye shall mourn and weep. ²⁶"Woe to you, whenever all men shall speak well of you, for according to these things their fathers were doing to the false prophets."

³¹ Luke 13:10 And He was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath days. 11And behold, there was a woman who had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and was utterly unable to lift herself up. 12 And having seen her, Jesus called to her and said to her, "Woman, thou hast been loosed from thine infirmity." 13 And He laid His hands upon her, and immediately she was set straight again, and was glorifying God.

³² Luke 17:10 "Thus also ye, whenever ye have done all things which were commanded you, say, 'We are unprofitable slaves, for we have done that which we were bound to do.

³⁴ Genesis 22:11 These are the words of the humble and obedient believer in god. These are the words of a man with meekness. These are the words of a man who has experienced God and not only has an intellectual knowledge about him . Everything is in God's Providence and therefore no matter what is happening in his life, internally or externally, God is there and if God calls him he answers laconically, I am here. Abraham said these words when under great duress as he was preparing to sacrifice his son in obedience to the Divine command. Samuel said these words in obedience to his mentor, the priest Eli. We should say these words in response to every situation. God is always with us, and therefore we should always be telling God that we are with Him.

with God to repay affliction to those afflicting you, 7 and to you who are afflicted rest with us, at the revelation of the Lord Jesus from heaven with the angels of His power, 8 in a flaming fire rendering vengeance on those who know not God, and on those who obey not the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, 9 who shall pay the penalty, everlasting destruction from the face of the Lord “and from the glory of His might,” 10 whenever He should come to be glorified in His saints, and to be marvelled at in all those who believe, because our testimony to you was believed in that day. 11 To which end also we pray for you that our God would deem you worthy of the calling, and fulfill every good pleasure of His goodness, and work of faith in power, 12 so that the name of our Lord Jesus Christ might be glorified in you, and ye in Him, according to the grace of our God and Lord Jesus Christ.

²⁶ 2 Thessalonians:1:3-12 We are bound to give thanks to God always concerning you, brethren, even as it is meet, because your faith increaseth exceedingly, and the love of each one of you all toward one another aboundeth, 4 so that we ourselves boast in you in the churches of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and the afflictions which ye bear, 5 which is a token of the righteous judgment of God, in order for you to be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer; 6 since it is a righteous thing with God to repay affliction to those afflicting you, 7 and to you who are afflicted rest with us, at the revelation of the Lord Jesus from heaven with the angels of His power, 8 in a flaming fire rendering vengeance on those who know not God, and on those who obey not the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, 9 who shall pay the penalty, everlasting destruction from the face of the Lord “and from the glory of His might,” 10 whenever He should come to be glorified in His saints, and to be marvelled at in all those who believe, because our testimony to you was believed in that day. 11 To which end also we pray for you that our God would deem you worthy of the calling, and fulfill every good pleasure of His goodness, and work of faith in power, 12 so that the name of our Lord Jesus Christ might be glorified in you, and ye in Him, according to the grace of our God and Lord Jesus Christ.

²⁷ James 1:2-8 My brethren, deem it all joy whenever ye fall into diverse temptations, 3 knowing that the testing of your faith worketh out patience. 4 But let patience keep on having a perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, lacking in nothing. 5 But if any of you lack wisdom, let him keep on asking from God Who giveth to all liberally, and reproacheth not, and it shall be given to him. 6 But let him keep on asking in faith, doubting nothing; for he who doubteth is like a billow of the sea being driven and tossed by the wind. 7 For let not that man be supposing that he shall receive anything from the Lord. 8 A double-minded man is unstable in all his ways.

²⁸ 1 Peter 1:3-9 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Who according to His great mercy regenerated us to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, 4 to an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled and unfading, which hath been kept in the heavens for you, 5 who are being guarded by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. 6 In which ye rejoice now for a little while, if it is needful, though ye have been grieved in diverse temptations, 7 in order that the testing of your faith, much more precious than perishing gold, though it is being tested by fire, might be found to praise and honor and glory in the revelation of Jesus Christ, 8 Whom not having seen, ye love; in Whom though now ye see Him not, but ye believe and are gladdened with a joy unspeakable and glorified, 9 receiving for yourselves the end of your faith—the salvation of your souls.

²⁹ Matthew 11:25-30 At that time Jesus answered and said, “I give thanks to Thee, O Father, Lord of the heaven and of the earth, that Thou didst hide these things from the wise and intelligent, and didst reveal them to babes. ²⁶“Yea, Father, for thus it was well-pleasing before Thee. ²⁷“All things were delivered to Me by My Father. And no one doth fully know the Son, except the Father; nor doth anyone fully know the Father, except the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son is willing to reveal Him. ²⁸“Come to Me, all ye who labor and are burdened, and I

A Pastor's prayers for his flock

Prayer from Romans 1:11-12 Prayer to impart some spiritual gift of Grace

My sweetest Jesus, grant that today, through my poor ministrations, everyone (here) will have imparted unto them some spiritual gift of Grace,	to the end that they may be established, that is, that I may be comforted together with them by the mutual faith, both of theirs and of mine. ¹

even Christ; 16 from whom all the body fitly framed and knit together through that which every joint supplieth, according to the working in due measure of each several part, maketh the increase of the body unto the building up of itself in love. 17 This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye no longer walk as the Gentiles also walk, in the vanity of their mind, 18 being darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God, because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the hardening of their heart; 19 who being past feeling gave themselves up to lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness. 20 But ye did not so learn Christ; 21 if so be that ye heard him, and were taught in him, even as truth is in Jesus: 22 that ye put away, as concerning your former manner of life, the old man, that waxeth corrupt after the lusts of deceit; 23 and that ye be renewed in the spirit of your mind, 24 and put on the new man, that after God hath been created in righteousness and holiness of truth. 25 Wherefore, putting away falsehood, speak ye truth each one with his neighbor: for we are members one of another. 26 Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath: 27 neither give place to the devil. 28 Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labor, working with his hands the thing that is good, that he may have whereof to give to him that hath need. 29 Let no corrupt speech proceed out of your mouth, but such as is good for edifying as the need may be, that it may give grace to them that hear. 31 Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamor, and railing, be put away from you, with all malice: 30 And grieve not the Holy Spirit of God, in whom ye were sealed unto the day of redemption. 31 Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamor, and railing, be put away from you, with all malice: 32 and be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving each other, even as God also in Christ forgave you.

²² Philippians 4:4-9 Be rejoicing in the Lord always; again I will say, be rejoicing. 5 Let your reasonableness be known to all men. The Lord is near: 6 Cease being anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and by entreaty, with giving of thanks, let your requests be made known to God. 7 And the peace of God, which surpasseth all understanding, shall guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. 8 For the rest, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are worthy of respect, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are pleasing, whatsoever things are of good report, if there is any virtue and if there is any praise, be considering these things. 9 And what ye learned and received and heard and saw in me, these things be practicing; and the God of peace shall be with you.

²³ Colossians 3:12-16 Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering; 13 Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye. 14 And above all these things put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness. 15 And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful. 16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord

²⁴ 1 Thessalonians 3:9-13 For what giving of thanks are we able to render to God concerning you, for all the joy with which we rejoice on account of you before our God, 10 night and day entreating exceedingly in order to see your face and to instruct the deficiencies of your faith? 11 Now may our God and Father Himself, and our Lord Jesus Christ, make straight our way toward you. 12 And may the Lord make you to increase and abound in love toward one another and toward all, even as we do also toward you, 13 to the end that He might establish your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all His saints.

²⁵ 2 Thessalonians 1:3-5, 10-12 We are bound to give thanks to God always concerning you, brethren, even as it is meet, because your faith increaseth exceedingly, and the love of each one of you all toward one another aboundeth, 4 so that we ourselves boast in you in the churches of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and the afflictions which ye bear, 5 which is a token of the righteous judgment of God, in order for you to be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer; 6 since it is a righteous thing

¹⁶ ROMANS 15:1-7 ¹We then who are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves. ²For let each of us be pleasing his neighbor for the good, toward building up. ³For even the Christ pleased not Himself; but even as it hath been written: "The reproaches of those who reproach Thee are fallen on Me." ⁴For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our instruction, in order that we through patience and the consolation of the Scriptures may have hope. ⁵Now may the God of patience and consolation grant you to be like-minded among one another according to Christ Jesus, ⁶that with one accord and with one mouth ye may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁷Wherefore, be receiving one another, even as also the Christ Himself received us to the glory of God.

¹⁷ 1 Corinthians 1:4-9 I thank my God always concerning you, for the grace of God which was given to you in Christ Jesus, ⁵ that in everything you were enriched in Him, in all utterance and all knowledge, ⁶ even as the testimony of the Christ was confirmed in you, ⁷ so as to not lack in even one gift of grace, while ye eagerly await the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ, ⁸ Who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹ Faithful is God, by Whom ye were called into the communion of His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

¹⁸ Ephesians 1:3-14 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the One Who blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenlies in Christ, ⁴ even as He chose us for Himself before the foundation of the world, for us to be holy and blameless before Him, ⁵ in love having foreordained us to adoption through Jesus Christ to Himself, according to the good pleasure of His will, ⁶ to the praise of the glory of His grace, wherein He bestowed grace upon us in the Beloved, ⁷ in Whom we have the redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of offenses, according to the riches of His grace, ⁸ which He caused to abound toward us in all wisdom and prudence, ⁹ having made known to us the mystery of His will, according to His good pleasure, which He purposed for Himself in Himself, ¹⁰ in regard to a dispensation of the fullness of the times, to recapitulate all things in the Christ, both the things in the heavens and the things upon the earth, ¹¹ in Him, in Whom we also were allotted inheritors, having been foreordained according to the purpose of the One energizing all things according to the counsel of His will, ¹² for us to be the praise of His glory, who have hoped before in the Christ; ¹³ in Whom ye also, having heard the word of the truth, the Gospel of your salvation—in Whom having also believed, ye were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise, ¹⁴ Who is an earnest of our inheritance until redemption of the preserved possession to the praise of His glory.

¹⁹ Ephesians 3:14 For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father, ¹⁵ from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named, ¹⁶ that he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, that ye may be strengthened with power through his Spirit in the inward man; ¹⁷ that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; to the end that ye, being rooted and grounded in love, ¹⁸ may be strong to apprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, ¹⁹ and to know the love of Christ which passeth knowledge, that ye may be filled unto all the fulness of God. ²⁰ Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, ²¹ unto him be the glory in the church and in Christ Jesus unto all generations for ever and ever. Amen.

²⁰ Ephesians 4:1-6 I, therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you to walk worthy of the calling with which you were called, ² with all lowliness and gentleness, with longsuffering, bearing with one another in love, ³ endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. ⁴ There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called in one hope of your calling; ⁵ one Lord, one faith, one baptism; ⁶ one God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.

²¹ Ephesians 4:12-32 ...For the perfecting of the saints, unto the work of ministering, unto the building up of the body of Christ: ¹³ till we all attain unto the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a fullgrown perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ: ¹⁴ that we may be no longer children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, in craftiness, after the wiles of error; ¹⁵ but speaking truth in love, we may grow up in all things into him, who is the head,

Prayer for those who cross my path according to the prayer of Paul - Ephesians 2:15-23

My Lord, Jesus Christ!

I thank Thee, Who hast given me, the unworthy and incompetent one, grace in baptism and even in the priesthood, that I might be a vessel that shines Thine uncreated light upon those that cross my path.

The holy Apostle Paul solemnly declared to those whom he loved that he never ceased giving thanks on behalf of them and made mention of them in his prayers, but Thou knowest that my poor prayers are without wholehearted thanks, but sometimes with a feeling of burden, and disorderly thoughts.

Teach me to give thanks for everyone, those that are doing well and those that are doing poorly, those that listen in those that don't, those who are just like me.

O God of our Lord, Jesus Christ ², and the Father of the glory,³ hear my poor prayer, given with thanksgiving as much as I am able, that Thou wouldst give to those who have crossed my path and whom thou has entrusted into my care:

the Spirit of wisdom and revelation, in the full knowledge of Thee, and that the eyes of their hearts may be enlightened, that they may know what is the hope of Thy calling, and what is the wealth of the glory of Thine inheritance in the Saints, and what is the surpassing greatness of Thy power toward us who believe, According to the energy of the might of Thy strength, which Thou energized in Thy Christ after Thou raised Him from the dead and seated Him at Thy right hand in the Heavenlies, above every principality and authority and power and lordship, and every name which is named, not only in this age, but also in the coming one.

And Father, as Thou has put into subjection all things under the feet of Thy son and our Lord Jesus Christ, and gave Him to be head over all things in the church, grant unto us that we totally subject ourselves unto the church, His body, the fullness of Him who filleth all things in all.⁴

Prayer for a pastor's flock, based on Philipians 1:3-11⁵

O Lord my God I thank Thee for all of those whom I remember now, and ask that always every entreaty of mine would be an entreaty with joy for them all, That they would continue to commune in the Gospel, and that we all will be continually being persuaded of this very thing, that the good work which has been begun in them will be brought to perfection unto the day of our Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ	And that they would ever become more deeply in my heart as I continue to make my poor entreaties with thanks that their love be abounding yet more and more in full knowledge and all perception, for them to approve the things which are excellent, in order that they may be sincere and without offense until the day of Christ, having been filled with the fruits of righteousness which are through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of Thee.

Prayer for a pastor's flock, based on Philipians 1:27-30⁶

Lord Jesus Christ I pray on behalf of Thy flock and those that Thou hast entrusted to my poor care that they would stand in one spirit, with one soul striving together for the faith of the Gospel, and in nothing being frightened by those who oppose,	which to them indeed is a proof of destruction, but to them of salvation, and this from Thee. For unto us, it was granted on behalf of Thee, not only to believe in Thee, but also to suffer on Thy behalf,
--	--

Whom also ye were circumcised with a circumcision made without hands, in the putting off of the body of the sins of the flesh in the circumcision of the Christ, 12 having been buried with Him in the baptism, in which also ye were raised with Him through faith in the energy of God, Who raised Him from the dead. 13 And you, being dead in the transgressions and the uncircumcision of your flesh, did He make alive together with Him, having forgiven us all the transgressions, 14 having blotted out the bond written against us, in the ordinances, which was contrary to us. And He hath taken it away out of the midst, having nailed it to the Cross. 15 And having put off from Himself the principalities and the powers, He made an example of them openly, triumphing over them in it.

¹³ If someone is not a priest, it would not be appropriate to begin this prayer as I have written: "O Lord Jesus Christ, I, Thine unworthy pastor, pray concerning my flock..." However, we are all priests, that is, we all intercede for each other, and indeed, the whole world, therefore, may I suggest something like this: "O Lord Jesus Christ, I, Thine unworthy pastor servant, pray concerning my flock-(all my family, or all of those that I know, or all those who have crossed my path)"

¹⁴ Romans 11:29 For not to be repented of are the gifts of grace and calling of God. 30 For even as ye also once disobeyed God, but now ye were shown mercy by their disobedience, 31 so also these now disobeyed, that by the mercy shown to you they also might have mercy shown them; 32 for God shut up all in disobedience, that He might have mercy upon all. 33 O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are His judgments and His ways past finding out! 34 "For who did know the mind of the Lord? Or who became His counselor?" 35 Or who first gave to Him, and it shall be recompensed to him? 36 For of Him, and through Him, and to Him, are all things: to Whom be the glory to the ages. Amen.

¹⁵ Romans 12:1-21 I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, well-pleasing to God, your rational worship. 2 And cease being fashioned according to this age, but be transfigured by the renewing of your mind, in order for you to put to the test what is the good and well-pleasing and perfect will of God. 3 For I say, through the grace which is given to me, to everyone that is among you, not to be high-minded beyond what is needful to be minded, but to be minded so as to be sober-minded, as God allotted a measure of faith to each. 4 For even as we have many members in one body, but all the members have not the same function, 5 so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and each one members of one another. 6 Having then free gifts differing according to the grace which was given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith; 7 or ministry, let us give ourselves in the ministering; or the one who teacheth, in the teaching; 8 or the one who exhorteth, in the exhorting; the one who imparteth his substance, with open-handedness; the one who standeth to defend, with diligence; the one who showeth mercy, with cheerfulness. 9 Let love be without hypocrisy. Abhor the evil, and cleave to the good. 10 Be kindly affectionate with brotherly love toward one another, in honor giving precedence to one another; 11 in zeal, hesitate not; fervent in spirit, serving the Lord; 12 rejoicing in hope, patient in tribulation, persevering in prayer, 13 contributing to the needs of the saints, pursuing hospitality. 14 Keep on blessing those who persecute you; keep on blessing, and not cursing. 15 Be rejoicing with those who rejoice, and be weeping with those who weep. 16 Be of the same mind toward one another. Mind not high things, but bring yourselves down to associate with the humble. Cease becoming wise in your own conceits. 17 Render to no one evil for evil. Provide for yourselves right things before all men. 18 If possible, as to that which depends on you, be at peace with all men. 19 Avenge not yourselves, beloved, but give place to wrath; for it hath been written: "Vengeance is Mine; I will repay," saith the Lord. 20 Therefore, "If thine enemy should hunger, be feeding him; if he should thirst, be giving him drink; for in doing this thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head." 21 Cease being conquered by the bad, but keep on conquering the bad with the good.

18 And He is the head of the body, the Church, Who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things He might come to hold first place. 19 For all the fullness was pleased to dwell in Him; 20 and through Him to reconcile all things to Him, having made peace through the blood of His Cross, through Him, whether the things on the earth or the things in the heavens. 21 And you, being once alienated and enemies in your mind, in wicked works, yet now did He reconcile 22 in the body of His flesh through death, to present you holy and blameless and without reproach before Him—23 if indeed ye continue abiding in the faith, firmly founded and steadfast, and are not moved away from the hope of the Gospel which ye heard, and which was proclaimed in all the creation which is under the heaven, of which I, Paul, became a minister.

¹⁰ Colossians 1:9-23 On this account we also, from the day in which we heard it, cease not praying for you, and requesting that ye might be filled with the full knowledge of His will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding, 10 so that ye might walk worthily of the Lord in everything pleasing, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the full knowledge of God, 11 being strengthened with all power, according to the might of His glory unto all patience and long-suffering with joy, 12 giving thanks to the God and Father Who rendereth us sufficient for the portion of the lot of the saints in the light, 13 Who delivered us from the power of the darkness and translated us into the kingdom of the Son of His love, 14 in Whom we have the redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins, 15 Who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. 16 For in Him were all things created, the things in the heavens and the things upon the earth, the visible and the invisible, whether thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or authorities. All things through Him and to Him have been created. 17 And He is before all things, and in Him all things have come into existence. 18 And He is the head of the body, the Church, Who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things He might come to hold first place. 19 For all the fullness was pleased to dwell in Him; 20 and through Him to reconcile all things to Him, having made peace through the blood of His Cross, through Him, whether the things on the earth or the things in the heavens. 21 And you, being once alienated and enemies in your mind, in wicked works, yet now did He reconcile 22 in the body of His flesh through death, to present you holy and blameless and without reproach before Him—23 if indeed ye continue abiding in the faith, firmly founded and steadfast, and are not moved away from the hope of the Gospel which ye heard, and which was proclaimed in all the creation which is under the heaven, of which I, Paul, became a minister.

¹¹ Colossians 1:26-29... The mystery which hath been hidden from the ages and from the generations, but now is made manifest to His saints, 27 to whom God willed to make known what is the wealth of the glory of this mystery among the nations, which is Christ in you, the hope of the glory, 28 Whom we announce, admonishing every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, in order that we might present every man perfect in Christ Jesus; 29 for which I also labor, struggling according to the energy of Him Who Himself energizeth in me in power.

¹² Colossians 2:1-15 For I wish you to know how great a struggle I have for you, and for those in Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh, 2 that their hearts might be comforted, having been knit together in love and unto all wealth of the full assurance of understanding, to a full knowledge of the mystery of the God and Father, and of the Christ, 3 in Whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. 4 And this I say, in order that no one may be beguiling you by persuasive speech; 5 for even though I am absent in the flesh, yet I am with you in spirit, rejoicing and seeing your order, and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ. 6 As ye therefore received the Christ, Jesus the Lord, be walking in Him, 7 rooted and built up in Him, and confirmed in the faith, even as ye were taught, abounding in it in giving of thanks. 8 Be wary lest there shall be anyone who leadeth you captive through philosophy and vain deceit, according to the tradition of men, according to the elements of the world, and not according to Christ. 9 For in Him dwelleth all the fullness of the divinity bodily, 10 and ye are made full in Him, Who is the head of all principality and authority, 11 in having the same struggle as the Apostles and all the Holy ones who witnessed their love for Thee.

If there be then any comfort in Thee, my Christ, if any consolation of love, if any communion of the Spirit, if any affection from the inward parts and compassionate feelings, make full my joy, that I and the flock which thou has entrusted to me be minding the one thing, doing nothing according to factious ambition or vainglory, but in humility esteeming one another above themselves, not looking each one to one's own things, but each also to the things of others. And let this mind be in us which was also in Thee, my Christ Jesus, Who, existing in the form of God,	deemed it not a prize to be seized to be equal with God; but He emptied Thyself and took the form of a slave, and came to be in the likeness of men. And having been found in fashion as a man, Thou didst humble Thyself and became obedient even to death— indeed, the death of a cross. Wherefore God, Thy Father, also exalted Thee exceedingly, and freely gave to Thee a name that is above every name, that in the name of Thee, my Jesus, every knee should bow, of those in heaven and on earth and under the earth; and every tongue should confess for itself that, Thou, my Jesus Christ, is Lord, to the glory of God, Thy Father.

under His feet, and gave Him to be head over all things to the Church, 23 which is His body, the fullness of Him Who filleth all things in all.

⁵ Philippians 1:3-11 I thank my God upon every remembrance of you, 4always in every entreaty of mine making the entreaty with joy for you all, 5for your communion in the Gospel from the first day until now, 6being persuaded of this very thing, that the One Who began a good work in you will bring it to perfection until the day of Jesus Christ; 7even as it is right for me to think this on behalf of you all, because I have you in my heart, in both my bonds and in the defense and confirmation of the Gospel, ye all are my fellow partakers of the grace. 8For God is my witness, how I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ. 9And this I pray, that your love be abounding yet more and more in full knowledge and all perception, 10for you to approve the things which are excellent, in order that ye may be sincere and without offense until the day of Christ, 11having been filled with the fruits of righteousness which are through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God. (Philippians 1:3-11)

⁷ Philippians 2:1-11 If there be then any comfort in Christ, if any consolation of love, if any communion of the Spirit, if any affection from the inward parts and compassionate feelings, 2 make full my joy, that ye be minding the same thing, having the same love, united in soul, minding the one thing, 3 doing nothing according to factious ambition or vainglory, but in humility esteeming one another above themselves, 4 not looking each one to one's own things, but each also to the things of others. 5 For let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus, 6 Who, existing in the form of God, deemed it not a prize to be seized to be equal with God; 7 but He emptied Himself and took the form of a slave, and came to be in the likeness of men. 8 And having been found in fashion as a man, He humbled Himself and became obedient even to death— indeed, the death of a cross. 9 Wherefore God also exalted Him exceedingly, and freely gave to Him a name that is above every name, 10 that in the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those in heaven and on earth and under the earth; 11 and every tongue should confess for itself that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

⁸ Philippians 2:12-16 Therefore, my beloved, even as ye always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much rather in mine absence, be working out your own salvation with fear and trembling; 13 for God is the One Who energizeth in you both to will and to energize for the sake of His good pleasure. 14 Be doing all things without murmurings and disputings, 15 in order that ye might become blameless and unsullied, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and wayward generation, among whom ye shine as luminaries in the world, 16 holding forth the word of life, for a boast to me in the day of Christ, that I ran not in vain, nor labored in vain.

⁹ Colossians 1:9-23 On this account we also, from the day in which we heard it, cease not praying for you, and requesting that ye might be filled with the full knowledge of His will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding, 10 so that ye might walk worthily of the Lord in everything pleasing, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the full knowledge of God, 11 being strengthened with all power, according to the might of His glory unto all patience and long-suffering with joy, 12 giving thanks to the God and Father Who rendereth us sufficient for the portion of the lot of the saints in the light, 13 Who delivered us from the power of the darkness and translated us into the kingdom of the Son of His love, 14 in Whom we have the redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins, 15 Who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. 16 For in Him were all things created, the things in the heavens and the things upon the earth, the visible and the invisible, whether thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or authorities. All things through Him and to Him have been created. 17 And He is before all things, and in Him all things have come into existence.

Notes

These prayers are inspired by sacred Scripture, and most of them are almost verbatim, perhaps with a few words inserted to make the prayer more intelligible or change the tenses, etc. I try to put in italics words that are not verbatim Scripture. I started creating them as I read the epistles of St. Paul and saw how often he would say, "I am praying ..." and then list a long list of beautiful things. I transformed St. Paul's statement that he was praying, or his expression of his deep desires for his flock, into a prayer, using verbatim Scripture whenever possible. There are also prayers from the Old Testament, the Gospels, and other epistles. Some of them are verbatim prayers, and some prayers are inspired by the text, and also contain verbatim Scripture whenever grammatical rules allow it.

I remember when I was a Protestant for a short period of my life, and everybody prayed extemporaneously, and the prayers were shallow. If a person did pray for various things as St. Paul did, it sounded wooden and pedantic and often quite boring. St. Paul's letters are definitely not wooden or pedantic, and I found that crafting prayers out of his words taught me how to have a more compunctionate attitude in prayer and how to ask for things. I hope it teaches you also.

How should you use these prayers? I pray them all the time, in my morning rule. Sometimes I pray all of them all, but they are very long in total, so I often pray several from the booklet I have created, and they just go on to different prayers the next day. I recommend that you download the pdf booklet, and print it, according to the directions on a duplex printer, printing double-sided, turning the pages on the short edge. Then you can fold over the paper and have a booklet, and if you have a saddle stapler, you can staple the booklet together.

If you find benefit in these prayers, I would appreciate it if you pray for the Simple creator of them, Priest Seraphim Holland, and my son +Daniel, who reposed June 11, 2017, when he was 20 years old (see www.orthodox.net/daniel).

¹ Romans 1:11-12 For I long to see you, that I might impart to you some spiritual gift of grace, to the end that ye may be established, 12 that is, that I may be comforted together with you by the mutual faith, both of yours and of mine.

⁴ Ephesians 2:15-23 On this account I also, having heard of the faith among you in the Lord Jesus and the love which is toward all the saints, 16 cease not giving thanks on behalf of you, making mention of you at the time of my prayers, 17 in order that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of the glory, may give to you the Spirit of wisdom and revelation, in the full knowledge of Him, 18 having the eyes of your heart enlightened that ye may know what is the hope of His calling, and what is the wealth of the glory of His inheritance in the saints, 19 and what is the surpassing greatness of His power toward us who believe according to the energy of the might of His strength, 20 which He energized in the Christ, after He raised Him from the dead and seated Him at His right in the heavenlies, 21 above every principality and authority and power and lordship, and every name which is named, not only in this age, but also in the coming one. 22 And He put in subjection all things

O God Most Holy Trinity,
I pray on behalf of the small flock which Thou hast entrusted to me, that they would be working out their own salvation with fear and trembling, for Thou art the one who energizes in them both to will and to energize for the sake of Thy good pleasure.

I pray that they would be doing all things without murmurings and disputing,

in order that they might become blameless and unsullied children of Thee without blemish in the midst of a crooked and wayward generation, that they would shine as luminaries in the world holding forth the word of life, for a boast to me, Thy unworthy pastor,
in the day of Christ, that I ran not in vain, nor labored in vain.

My Lord Jesus Christ, Savior of our souls, fullness of the Father, hear my poor prayer, and by Thy Grace, make it a ceaseless prayer, that those that I know and those that have crossed my path might be filled with the full knowledge of Thy will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding, so that they might walk worthily of Thee in everything pleasing, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the full knowledge of Thee, being strengthened with all power, according to the might of Thy glory unto all patience and long-suffering with joy, giving thanks to the God and Father Who rendereth us sufficient for the portion of the lot of the saints in the light, Who delivered us from the power of the darkness and translated us into the kingdom of Thee, the Son of His love, for in Thee we have the redemption through Thy blood, the forgiveness of sins, Thou Who art the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation.

For in Thee were all things created, the things in the heavens and the things upon the earth, the visible and the invisible, whether thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or authorities. All things, through Thee, and to Thee, have been created.

And Thou art before all things, and in Thee all things have come into existence.

And Thou art the head of the body, the Church, Who art the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things Thou might come to hold first place.

For all the fullness was pleased to dwell in Thee and through Thee Thou didst reconcile all things to Thyself, having made peace through the blood of Thy Cross, through Thyself, whether the things on the earth or the things in the heavens.

And we, being once alienated and enemies in our minds, in wicked works, yet now didst Thou reconcile in the body of Thy flesh through death, to present us

"But I say to you who hear, keep on loving your enemies, doing well to those who hate you, 28"blessing those who curse you, and praying for those who act spitefully toward you. 29"To him who smiteth thee on the cheek, be offering also the other; and from him who taketh away thine outer garment, do not even withhold thy tunic. 30"And to everyone who asketh thee, be giving; and from him who taketh away your things, cease demanding them back. 31"And even as ye wish that men be doing to you, also be ye doing to them in like manner. 32"And if ye should love those who love you, what kind of thanks is there to you? For even the sinners love those who love them. 33"And if ye should do good to those who do good to you, what kind of thanks is there to you? For even the sinners do the same. 34"And if ye should lend to those from whom ye hope to receive, what kind of thanks is there to you? For also the sinners lend to sinners, in order that they might receive the same. 35"But keep on loving your enemies and doing good, and lending, hoping to receive back nothing; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be sons of the Highest; for He is kind to the unthankful and to the evil. 36"Therefore keep on becoming compassionate, even as your Father also is compassionate. 37"And cease judging, and in no wise shall ye be judged; cease condemning, and in no wise shall ye be condemned; keep on acquitting, and ye shall be acquitted. 38"Keepuke 6 on giving, and it shall be given to you: a good measure which hath been pressed down and shaken together, and is overflowing shall they give into your bosom; for with the same measure with which ye measure, it shall be measured in turn to you."39And He spoke a parable to them: "A blind man is not able to guide a blind man, is he? Both shall fall into a pit, shall they not? 40"A disciple is not above his teacher; but everyone who hath been perfected shall be as his teacher. 41"But why seest thou the splinter that is in the eye of thy brother, but perceivest not the beam that is in thine own eye? 42"Or how canst thou say to thy brother, 'Brother, let me cast out the splinter that is in thine eye,' when thou thyself seest not the beam in thine own eye? Hypocrite, cast out first the beam from thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the splinter that is in the eye of thy brother. 43"For there is no good tree which produceth rotten fruit, nor a rotten tree which produceth good fruit; 44"for each tree is known by its own fruit. For they do not gather figs from thorns, nor do they pick a bunch of grapes from a bramble bush. 45"The good man bringeth forth out of the good treasure of his heart that which is good; and the evil man bringeth forth out of the evil treasure of his heart that which is evil. For out of the abundance of the heart, his mouth speaketh.

Prayer for a pastor's flock, Colossians 1:26-29. The mystery which hath been hidden from the ages

O Lord Jesus Christ, I thank Thee that Thou hast revealed unto us the mystery which hath been hidden from the ages and from the generations, but now is made manifest to Thy Saints, and even unto us poor ones, to whom thou has willed to make known what is the wealth of the glory of this mystery among the nations, which is Thee, my sweetest Christ, in us, the hope of glory.

And grant that we learn all things concerning Thee in all wisdom in order that we might be presented as men perfect in Thee, Christ Jesus;

for which I also labor struggling according to the energy of Thee,

Who Thyself energizeth in me in power.¹¹

the labor of the olive shall fail, and the fields shall produce no food:

the sheep have failed from the pasture, and there are no oxen at the cribs;

O Lord, Thou hast mercy upon all; for thou canst do all things, and winkest at the sins of men, because they should amend.

in Whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

And this I pray to Thee, in order that no one may be beguiling them by persuasive speech;

and that even when I am absent in the flesh,

yet I am with them in spirit, rejoicing and seeing their order, and the steadfastness of their faith in Thee, my Christ.

in Whom also we were circumcised with a circumcision made without hands, in the putting off of the body of the sins of the flesh in the circumcision of Thee, my Christ, having been buried with Thee in the baptism, in which also we were raised with Thee through faith in the energy of God,

Who raised Thee from the dead.

And we, being dead in the transgressions and the uncircumcision of our flesh, didst Thou make alive together with Thee, having forgiven us all the transgressions, having blotted out the bond written against us, in the ordinances, which was contrary to us.

And Thou hast taken it away out of the midst, having nailed it to the Cross.

And having put off from Thyself the principalities and the powers, Thou didst made an example of them openly, triumphing over them in it, and for all this, we send up Glory unto Thee and to Thine unoriginate Father and Thine all-holy, good and life-giving Spirit, amen.

Prayers from the Old Testament

Prayer from the wisdom of Wisdom 9:1-5

¹ O God of my fathers, and Lord of mercy, who hast made all things with Thy word, ² And ordained man through Thy wisdom, that he should have dominion over the creatures which Thou hast made, ³ And ordered the world according to equity and righteousness, and executed judgment with an upright heart:

⁴ Give me wisdom, that sitteth by thy throne; and reject me not from among thy children:
⁵ For I, thy servant and son of thine handmaid, am a feeble person, and of a short time, and too young for the understanding of judgment and laws.

Loose me from mine infirmities! Prayer from Luke 13:10-12³¹

O Lord Jesus Christ, by Thy great mercy, loose me from mine infirmities, as Thou didst for the woman who had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and was utterly unable to lift herself up, that I may glorify Thee.

I am an unprofitable slave. Prayer from Luke 17:10

Lord forgive me for I am an unprofitable slave and the small things I have done I was already bound to do, leaving the greater part undone.

I am without excuse and without reason. And yet I know that Thou lovest me beyond all reasonable expectation, and that by Thy Holy Spirit Thou always givest me grace to improve little by little.

Help me to be a profitable slave. Slavery to Thee is true freedom, and apparent freedom in the world is vile and debasing slavery. I am debased in my thoughts and my deeds but Thou canst elevate me and I believe that Thou wilt.

I read about the ohly priests of old and although I bear the same grace of ordination, I barely resemble them in their thoughts or their prayers or their deeds.

O Lord, do not hold my incompetence and my sins and my disobedience to the account of those that thou hast tasked me as Thy slave to shepherd.

Everyone is infirm, and I am an infirm man commanded to help the infirm to become healthy.

This task is too big for me. I accept it because Thou has given it to me, but I am unworthy of it.

Let not anything that I have forgotten or omitted or refused to do because I am a disobedient slave, cause them any harm.³²

Prayer for a pastor's flock, Colossians 3:1-17

Colossians 3:1-17 1 If ye then were raised with the Christ, be seeking the things above, where the Christ is seated at the right of God. 2 Be minding the things above, not the things on the earth. 3 For ye died, and your life hath been hidden with the Christ in God. 4 Whenever the Christ, Who is your life, should be made manifest, then also ye shall be made manifest with Him in glory. 5 Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth: fornication, uncleanness, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. 6 On account of which things cometh the wrath of God upon the sons of disobedience, 7 among whom ye also walked once, when ye used to live in them. 8 But now ye also put off from yourselves all these things: wrath, anger, malice, blasphemy, foul language out of your mouth. 9 Cease lying to one another, since ye have put off the old man with his practises, 10 and have put on the new that is being renewed toward full knowledge according to the image of the One Who created him, 11 where there is no Greek and Jew, circumcision and uncircumcision, barbarian, Scythian, slave and free, but Christ is all things and in all. 12 Put on for yourselves, therefore, as elect of God, holy and beloved, compassion from your inward parts, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, long-suffering, 13 bearing with one another, and graciously forgiving one another, if anyone hath a complaint against someone; even as the Christ graciously forgave you, thus also do ye. 14 And over all these things, put on love, which is the bond of perfection. 15 And let the peace of God be presiding in your hearts, to which also ye were called in one body; and keep on becoming thankful. 16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, in all wisdom, teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual odes, singing with grace in your heart to the Lord. 17 And everything, whatsoever ye may do in word or in deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to the God and Father through Him.

Prayer from Romans 11:29,33-35 wisdom and knowledge of Thee, O God!

but be transfigured by the renewing of our mind, in order for us to put to the test what is Thine good and well-pleasing and perfect will.

And as the holy apostle Paul ordered us, grant that we would not to be high-minded beyond what is needful to be minded, but to be minded so as to be sober-minded, as thou hast allotted a measure of faith to each.

For even as we have many members in one body, but all the members have not the same function, so we, who are many, are one body in Thee, O Christ, and each one members of one another.

Having then free gifts differing according to the grace which was given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith;
or ministry, let us give ourselves in the ministering;
or the one who teacheth, in the teaching;
or the one who exhorteth, in the exhorting;
the one who imparteth his substance, with open-handedness;
the one who standeth to defend, with diligence;
the one who showeth mercy, with cheerfulness.
Let our love be without hypocrisy.
Help us to abhor the evil, and cleave to the good,
and be kindly affectionate with brotherly love toward each another, in honor giving precedence to one another;
in zeal, hesitating not;
fervent in spirit,
serving Thee, O Lord;

rejoicing in hope,
patient in tribulation,
persevering in prayer,
contributing to the needs of the saints, pursuing hospitality.

Help us to keep on blessing those who persecute us;

and keep on blessing, and not cursing.

We ask help to be rejoicing with those who rejoice,

and to be weeping with those who weep,

and to be of the same mind toward one another.

Keep us from minding all high things, but bring ourselves down to associate with the humble, that we would cease becoming wise in our own conceits.

O Lord, we ask strength to render to no one evil for evil,

and to provide for ourselves right things before all men,

And, if possible, as to that which depends on us, to be at peace with all men,

for we know that Thou hast commanded: Avenge not yourselves, beloved, but give place to wrath; for it hath been written: "Vengeance is Mine; I will repay," saith the Lord. Therefore, "If thine enemy should hunger, be feeding him; if he should thirst, be giving him drink; for in doing this thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head."

O Holy Trinity, we beg help to cease being conquered by the bad, but keep on conquering the bad with the good,

And we glorify Thee, O unoriginate Father, and only begotten Son and all holy and good and life-giving Spirit.

Amen.¹⁵

Prayer based upon the beatitudes of Luke Luke 6:20-26³⁰

Luke 6:20-23 "And He lifted up His eyes to His disciples, and began to say: "Blessed are the poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. ²¹"Blessed are ye who hunger now, for ye shall be filled. Blessed are ye who weep now, for ye shall laugh. ²²"Blessed are ye whenever men hate you, and whenever they separate you, and reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, on account of the Son of Man. ²³"Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, for behold, your reward is great in the heavens; for according to these things their fathers were doing to the prophets.

Prayers from the Gospels

Prayer of Christ made into a prayer of a sinner, to take up the Yoke of Christ. Matthew 11:25-30²⁹

I give thanks unto Thee, O Father, Lord of the Heaven and of earth, that Thou hast hidden spiritual things from the wise and intelligent, and dost reveal them to babes.

Yay, Father, for this it was well-pleasing before Thee. And all things are delivered unto Thy son and my God, Jesus Christ by Thee, O Father.

And no one doth fully know the Son except Thee, O Father, nor doth anyone fully know Thee, O Father, except Thy Son, my Lord Jesus Christ, and he to whomsoever Thy Son is willing to reveal Thee.

I am one who labors without fruitfulness and am burdened, because of my sins, and I desire that Thy Son will give me rest.

Help me, the lazy one, to take the Yoke of Thy Son upon myself and learn from Him, for He is Meek and humble of heart, and I shall find rest for my soul.

For His yoke is good and His burden is light, and unto Thee, with Thine only begotten Son, and Thine All-Holy and life-creating Spirit, do I send up thanksgiving and glory, now and ever, and unto the ages of ages, amen.

O, Lord, Thou knowest that I am weak, but even in my wretched state, by Thy grace, I beg Thee that I would become strong and bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please myself.

Banish within me selfishness and indifference, and let me be pleasing my neighbor for the good, toward building up.

For even Thy son, Jesus Christ, pleased not Himself; but even as it hath been written: "The reproaches of those who reproach Thee are fallen on Me."

For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our instruction, in order that we through patience and the consolation of the Scriptures may have hope.

And also, O God, grant me patience and consolation, and grant me to be like-minded toward everyone, according to Thy Christ.

⁵Now may my God of patience and consolation grant me to be like-minded among all according to Christ Jesus, that with one accord and with one mouth I may glorify Thee, the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Wherefore, help me to be receiving all my brethren, even as also Thine only-begotten son, Christ Himself received us to the glory of Thee, my God, and unto Thee, the unoriginate Father, together with Thine only-begotten Son, and Thine Holy and Life-giving Spirit, do I send up glory, now and ever, and unto the ages of ages, Amen.

O God, Father Almighty, ⁽⁴⁾ I thank Thee always for the grace which was given unto us in Christ Jesus, ⁽⁵⁾ that in everything we have been enriched in Thee, in all utterance and all knowledge. And therefore, I a sinner, make bold to ask that ⁽⁶⁾ the testimony of thy Christ would be confirmed in us poor sinners, ⁽⁷⁾ so as to not lack in even one gift of grace,	while we eagerly await the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ, ⁽⁸⁾ Who shall also confirm us unto the end, that we may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁽⁹⁾ Faithful Art Thou, O God as Thou hast called us into the communion of Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, of whom, together with Thee and Thine All-Holy and Life-Giving Spirit, we send up glory, now and ever and unto the ages of ages. Amen.¹⁷

Prayer based on 1 Peter 1:3-9

Blessed art thou O GOD, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Who, according to Thy great mercy regenerated us to a Living Hope through the resurrection of Thy Son Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled and unfading, which hast been kept in the heavens for us who are being guarded by Thy power, through faith unto salvation, ready to be revealed in the last time. And although we have sometimes been grieved in diverse temptations, we rejoice now for a little while as it is needful, in order that the testing of our faith, much more precious than perishing gold,	though it is tested by fire, might be found to praise and honor and glory in the revelation of Thy Son Jesus Christ, whom not having seen we love, in whom, though now we see Him not, we believe and are gladdened with a joy unspeakable and glorified, receiving for ourselves the end of our faith, the salvation of our souls, and on this account, we send up glory to Thee, together with Thine Only-begotten Son, and Thine All-Holy and Life-giving Spirit, always now and ever and unto the ages of Ages, amen.²⁸

Prayer based on James 1:19-27

James 1:19 Therefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath; 20 for man's wrath doth not work out God's righteousness. 21 Wherefore lay aside all filthiness and surplus of wickedness, and receive in meekness the implanted word, which is able to save your souls. 22 But keep on becoming doers of the word, and not only hearers, falsely reasoning for yourselves. 23 For if anyone is a hearer of the word, and not a doer, this one is like a man observing carefully the face he was born with in a mirror; 24 for he observed himself well, and hath gone away, and straightway forgetteth of what sort he was. 25 But the one who looketh into the perfect law, that of freedom, and remaineth therein—because this one did not become a hearer of forgetfulness, but a doer of work—this one shall be happy in his doing. 26 If anyone among you seem to be religious, while he bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his heart, the religion of this one is vain. 27 Religion pure and undefiled before the God and Father is this: to visit orphans and widows in their affliction, and to keep oneself unspotted from the world.

Prayer of praise, according to Ephesians 1:3-14

Blessed be Thou, the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the One Who blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenlies in Christ, even as Thou didst choose us for Thyself before the foundation of the world, for us to be holy and blameless before Thee,

in love having foreordained us to adoption through Thy son Jesus Christ to Thyself, according to the good pleasure of Thy will,

to the praise of the glory of Thy grace, wherein Thou hast bestowed grace upon us in the Beloved, in Whom we have the redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of offenses, according to the riches of His grace,

which He caused to abound toward us in all wisdom and prudence, having made known to us the mystery of His will, according to His good pleasure, which He purposed for Himself in Himself,

in regard to a dispensation of the fullness of the times, to recapitulate all things in Thy Christ, both the things in the heavens and the things upon the earth,

in Him, in Whom we also were allotted inheritors, having been foreordained according to the purpose of the One energizing all things according to the counsel of His will,

for us to be the praise of His glory,
who have hoped before in Thy Christ;

in Whom we also, having heard the word of the truth, the Gospel of our salvation - were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise,

Who is an earnest of our inheritance until redemption of the preserved possession to the praise of His glory.¹⁸

Prayer based on Ephesians 3:14-21

O Father, I bow my knees to Thee, from Whom every family in heaven and on earth is named,
and ask that Thou wouldst grant unto us according to the riches of Thy glory, that we may be strengthened with power through Thy Spirit in the inward man,
and that Thy Christ may dwell in our hearts through faith;
to the end that we, being rooted and grounded in love,

may be strong to apprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth,
and to know the love of Thy Christ
which passeth knowledge, that we may be filled unto all the fulness of thee.
Now unto Thee, Who art able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us,
unto Thee be the glory in the church and in Thy Christ Jesus unto all generations forever and ever. Amen.¹⁹

Prayers from the Epistle of St James.

Prayer based on James 1:2-8²⁷

O God my God! I thank Thee for all of my temptations!

Teach me to deem all temptations to be joy because they are causing the testing of my faith, with the end of patience, and my soul becoming perfect and entire, lacking in nothing.

Oh God my God! Teach me to have patience from the enduring of all my temptations, whether caused by my sins or from another place.

O God my God! Teach me wisdom, and I know that Thou art well pleased to liberally give wisdom to all who correctly ask.

I know that Thou wilt not reproach me for asking for wisdom if I ask with faith, but O Lord, Thou knowest that my faith is weak.

Therefore, O my God, help me to ask for all things in faith without doubting;
and with stability,

to the end that I always glorify Thee, the Unoriginate Father, together with Thine only-begotten Son, together with Thine all holy, good and Life-Giving Spirit.
Amen.

I give thanks to Thee, O God concerning my brethren, those thou hast entrusted to me,
and beg that their faith will increase exceedingly,
and the love of each one of them toward the other would abound.
And grant that they would have patience and faith in all their persecutions and afflictions, which are a token of Thy righteous judgment, in order that they would be counted worthy of Thy kingdom.

To this end I pray that that Thou wouldst make all of them worthy of the calling and fulfill every good pleasure of Thy goodness and work of faith in power, so that the name of Thee, O Lord Jesus Christ, might be glorified in them and according to Thy grace, O My God and Savior Jesus Christ, together within Thine unoriginate
Father and Thy Holy and life-giving Spirit.
Amen.²⁶

2 Thessalonians 3:1 For the rest, brethren, be praying for us, that the word of the Lord may run and be glorified, even as also it is with you, 2 and that we might be delivered from wayward and evil men; for not all have the faith. 3 But faithful is the Lord, Who shall establish you and guard you from the evil one. 4 And we trust in the Lord as to you, that ye both do and will do what we command you. 5 And may the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patience of the Christ.

O Lord Jesus Christ, May Thy word run in us, and be glorified, and Deliver Us from Wayward and evil men, for not all have the faith. For thou art faithful O Lord, and thou shalt establish us and guard us from the evil one, even as, by the grace, we both do and will do everything that Thou dost command us to do. And, O Lord direct our hearts into the love of Thee, and into the patience of Thee, O Christ.

O Lord Jesus Christ, Who called thine Apostles to the way of Life, grant Thy grace to me to walk worthy of the calling with which I am called with all lowliness and gentleness, with longsuffering,
bearing with everyone in love endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

For there is one body and one Spirit, just as we were called in one hope of our calling;
one Lord, one faith, one baptism;
one God and Father of all,
Who is above all,
and through all,
and in us all.²⁰

Prayer from Ephesians 4:12-32

O Lord Jesus Christ, Thou hast given us great gifts according to our capacity!

Grant that these gifts will be for the perfecting of the saints, unto the work of ministering, unto the building up Thy body till we all attain unto the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of Thee, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Thee, that we may be no longer children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, in craftiness, after the wiles of error.

but speaking the truth in love and growing up in all things unto Thee, teach us to embrace our role in the ⁽¹⁶⁾ increase of the body of Thee, our Christ, unto building up of the church in love.

O Lord Jesus Christ, help us to not ¹⁷ walk as those of the world, in the vanity of their mind, ¹⁸ who have been darkened in thought and alienated from the life of God, because of the ignorance which is in them, because of the hardness of their heart; ¹⁹ who, having become insensible, gave themselves up to licentiousness, for the working of all uncleanness with greediness.

But O Lord, grant us to be ²² renewed in the spirit of our mind, and to ²³ put on the new man, who, according to Thee, was created by baptism in righteousness and holiness of the truth.

Wherefore help us to put away lying, and speak truth with our neighbor: for we are members one of another. Help us to never have anger that is sin, but if we sin in our anger never let the sun go down without our repentance, neither that we would give place to the devil.

Help us by the work of our hands to give to him that needeth, and let no corrupt communication proceed out of our mouths but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.

Especially let it never be that we grieve the Holy Spirit, whereby we have been sealed unto the day of redemption, and that all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamor, and evil speaking put away from us, with all malice.

Prayer from 2 Thessalonians 1:3-5,10-12

We are bound always to give thanks unto Thee O God, concerning all of us in the church, and it is meet to ask Thee that our faith will increase exceedingly,

and the love of us toward one another would abound, and that we would have patience and faith in all of our persecutions and afflictions which we bear as a token of Thy righteous judgment, in order that we be counted worthy of the kingdom of God.

We await the day that Thou, O Christ, should come to be glorified in Thy saints, and to be marveled at in all those who believe.

To which end also we pray that Thou wilt deem us worthy of the calling, and fulfill every good pleasure of Thy goodness and work of faith in power, so that Thy name, O Lord Jesus Christ, might be glorified in us, and we in Thee, according to the grace of Thee, our God, and Lord Jesus Christ, together with that of Thine Unoriginate Father and Thy all-holy and good and life-giving Spirit, amen.²⁵

Prayer from 1 Thessalonians 3:9-13

O God I thank Thee for all those that Thou hast brought into my path, and those who Thou hast charged me to minister to in my poor way.

And I rejoice concerning them O my God, and beg Thee that I may often see their faces and instruct them some way in the deficiencies of their faith, even as I am a poor sinner and deficient in all things except sin.

And, O God and Father and my Lord Jesus Christ, grant that my way would be made straight towards them, that there would be nothing froward or perverse in my conduct that harms them.

O Lord, make them abound and increase in love toward one another and toward all, and increase my love and sacrifice for them, even as an example for them.

And may everything that I do as a poor minister establish their hearts blameless in holiness before Thee, Our God and Father, until the coming of Thy beloved Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, with all of His Saints.²⁴

And help us to be kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another even as Thy Father for Thy sake hath forgiven us, to whom we send up glory, together with the only begotten son and the All Holy good and life giving Spirit, Amen.²¹

Glory to Thee, O God, Most Holy Trinity! Grant us that by Thy grace we would be reasonable, so much so that our reasonableness would be known to all men!

And help us to cease being anxious about anything, but that, in everything by prayer and by entreaty, with the giving of thanks, we would make our requests be made known to Thee.

And therefore, Thy peace, which surpasseth all understanding shall guard our hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.

For the rest,

whatsoever things are true,

whatsoever things are worthy of respect, whatsoever things are just,

whatsoever things are pure,

whatsoever things are pleasing,

whatsoever things are of good report,

if within us is any virtue or any praise, help us to be considering these things.

And what we have learned and received and heard and seen in the lives of Thy Holy Ones, whether by word or by experience, help us to be practicing these things.

And we know that thou, the God of peace, shalt be with us if we do these things, and for this, we send up glory to Thee, the Unoriginate Father, and Only-Begotten Son, and Holy and Life-Giving Spirit, Amen.²²

My Lord Jesus Christ, I am Thine elect, although unworthy, give me grace to put on bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, long-suffering.

Help me to forbear with all men and forgive everyone, and if I have any quarrel with anyone, help me to forgive as Thou hast forgiven me.

And above all these things teach me to love, which is the bond of perfectness.

And let Thy peace rule in my heart to which I am called in one body and for which I am thankful.

And let thy word dwell in me richly in all wisdom, and if I attain to any degree of competence, help me to be participating in teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs singing with grace in our hearts to the Lord, along with thine Unoriginate Father and Thine all holy and life giving Spirit.²³
