

Small Paraklesis (Supplicatory Canon)
to the Most Holy Theotokos

A Poem by Theosterictus the Monk (or, according to some, by Theophanes)

The Service of the Small Paraklesis is chanted in times of distress and sorrow of soul.

It is also chanted during the first fourteen days of August (that is, the Dormition Fast of the Mother of God), alternately with the Great Supplicatory Canon.

PRIEST: Blessed is our God...

Or if a Reader's Service:

Reader: Through the prayers of our holy fathers, Lord Jesus Christ our God, have mercy on us. Amen.

Glory to Thee, our God, glory to Thee.

O Heavenly King, Comforter, Spirit of Truth, Who art everywhere present and fillest all things, Treasury of good things and Giver of life: Come and dwell in us, and cleanse us of all impurity, and save our souls, O Good One.

Holy God, Holy Mighty, Holy Immortal, have mercy on us.

Holy God, Holy Mighty, Holy Immortal, have mercy on us.

Holy God, Holy Mighty, Holy Immortal, have mercy on us.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, both now and ever, and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

O Most Holy Trinity, have mercy on us. O Lord, blot out our sins. O Master, pardon our iniquities. O Holy One, visit and heal our infirmities for Thy name's sake. Lord, have mercy. (Three times)

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, Both now and ever....

Our Father, Who art in the Heavens, hallowed be Thy Name. Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.

PRIEST: For Thine is the Kingdom...

Or if a reader's Service:

Reader: Through the prayers of our holy fathers, Lord Jesus Christ
our God, have mercy on us.
Amen.

Lord, have mercy. (Twelve times)

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, Both now and ever....

O come, let us worship God our King.

O come, let us worship and fall down before Christ our King and God.

O come, let us worship and fall down before Christ Himself, our King and God.

After the chanting of the Expostalaria, the priest says:

PRIEST: Through the prayers of our holy Fathers, Lord Jesus Christ our God, have mercy on us. Amen.

Psalm 142

O Lord, hear my prayer; give ear
unto my supplication in Thy truth;
hearken unto me in Thy righteousness.

And enter not into judgment
with Thy servant, for in Thy sight shall no man living be justified.

For the enemy hath persecuted
my soul; he hath humbled my life
down to the earth.

He hath sat me in darkness as those that have been long dead,
and my spirit within me is become despondent; within me my heart is troubled.

I remembered days of old, I meditated on all Thy works, I pondered on the creations of Thy hands.

I stretched forth my hands unto Thee; my soul thirsteth after Thee
like a waterless land.

Quickly hear me, O Lord; my spirit hath fainted away.

Turn not Thy face away from me,
lest I be like unto them that go down into the pit.

During the Dormition Fast, we chant the following Exapostilaria (from the conclusion of the Great Paraklesis)

Third Tone (Variant)

O ye Apostles from afar,
being now gathered together
here in the vale of Gethsemane, give burial to my body; and Thou, my Son and my God, receive Thou
my spirit.

Thou art the sweetness of Angels, the gladness of afflicted ones, and the protectress of Christians, O Virgin Mother of our Lord; be thou my helper and save me
from out of eternal torments.

I have thee as Mediatress
with the man-befriending God; may He not censure my actions before the hosts of the Angels. I supplicate thee, O Virgin, come unto my aid
most quickly.

Thou art a gold-entwined
tower and twelve-wall
encircled city, a throne
besprinkled with sunbeams,
a royal chair of the King, O inexplicable wonder! That thou dost milk-feed the Master.

Cause me to hear Thy mercy in the morning; for in Thee have I put my hope.

Cause me to know, O Lord, the way wherein I should walk; for unto Thee have I lifted up my soul.

Rescue me from mine enemies, O Lord; unto Thee have I fled for refuge. Teach me to do Thy will,
for Thou art my God.

Thy good Spirit shall lead me in the land of uprightness. For Thy name's sake, O Lord, shalt Thou quicken me.

In Thy righteousness shalt Thou bring my soul out of affliction, and in Thy mercy shalt Thou utterly destroy mine enemies.

And Thou shalt cut off all them that afflict my soul, for I am Thy servant.

We omit: Glory ... Both now and “Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. Glory to Thee, O God.” (Thrice) and immediately chant “God is the Lord”

And then we chant the following:

Fourth Tone

God is the Lord, and hath appeared unto us; blessed is He that cometh in the Name of the Lord.

A Stichos is chanted, then “God is the Lord...” again, until all Stichoi are chanted.

Note: All words in italics are omitted by the Greeks and sung in Russian usage.

Stichos 1: O give thanks unto the Lord, for He is good, and call upon His Holy Name.

Stichos 2: All the nations compassed me round about, and by the name of the Lord, I warded them off.

Stichos 3: (italics are omitted by the Greeks) I shall not die, but live, and I shall tell of the works of the Lord.

Stichos 4: (italics are omitted by the Greeks) The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner, this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes.

When it is not the Dormition Fast, we chant the following Troparia with prostrations

Second Tone “When from the Tree”

All those who in faith flee to thee, with thy mighty hand dost thou shelter, O pure one, as thou art good; no one else have we who sin as a perpetual intercession with our God in dangers and sorrows, we who have been burdened down with our abundant sins, Mother of God in the highest.

Wherefore, we all fall down before thee; rescue us, thy servants, from adversities.

Joy of all that sorrow are thou, and of the oppressed a protectress, and nurture of all the poor, comfort unto the estranged, a staff are thou of the blind, visitation of all the sick, a shelter and succor unto those brought down by pain, helper of orphaned ones: Mother of God in the Highest art thou, O immaculate Maiden; hasten, we beseech thee, to redeem thy slaves.

Eighth Tone

Lady, do thou receive the supplications of thy slaves, and deliver us from every affliction and necessity.

Second Tone

Unto thee do I commit my every hope, O Mother of God; guard me under thy shelter.

The Dismissal

The Priest makes the Dismissal:

Priest: Glory to thee, O Christ our God and our hope, glory to thee.

People: Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen. Lord, have mercy; Lord, have mercy; Lord, have mercy. Father (Master, if a bishop is present, whether he serve of not), bless.

Priest: May Christ our true God, (insert the appointed characteristic phrase, on Sundays, 'Who arose from the dead'), through the intercessions of His most pure Mother; (and the rest) of our father among the saints, John Chrysostom, Archbishop of Constantinople; (and of the saint(s) whose temple it is and whose day it is); of the holy and Righteous Ancestors of God, Joachim and Anna; and of all the saints: have mercy on us and save us, for He is good and the Lover of mankind.

People: Amen.

And then we venerate the icon of the Theotokos.

Troparia - Fourth Tone "Thou Who was raised up"

To God's Birthgiver let us run now most earnestly, we sinners all and wretched ones, and fall prostrate in repentance, calling from the depths of our souls: Lady, come unto our aid, have compassion upon us; hasten thou, for we are lost in a throng of transgressions;
turn not thy servants away
with empty hands, for thee alone do we have as our only hope.

Glory to the Father...

Repeat

Both now and ever....

O Theotokos, we shall not cease from speaking of all thy mighty acts, all we the unworthy ones; for if thou hadst not stood to intercede for us, who would have delivered us from such numerous dangers? Who would have preserved us all until now in true freedom? O Lady, we shall not turn away
from thee; for thou dost always save thy servants
from all manner of grief.

Psalm 50

Reader: Have mercy on me, O God, according to Thy great mercy; and according to the multitude of Thy compassions blot out my transgression.

Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity and cleanse me from my sin.

For I know mine iniquity, and my sin is ever before me.

Against Thee only have I sinned and done this evil before Thee, that Thou mightest be justified in Thy words, and prevail when Thou art judged.

For behold, I was conceived in iniquities, and in sins did my mother bear me.

For behold, Thou hast loved truth; the hidden and secret things of Thy wisdom hast Thou made manifest unto me.

Thou shalt sprinkle me with hyssop, and I shall be made clean; Thou shalt wash me, and I shall be made whiter than snow.

Thou shalt make me to hear joy and gladness; the bones that be humbled, they shall rejoice.

Turn Thy face away from my sins and blot out all mine iniquities.

Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me.

Cast me not away from Thy presence and take not Thy Holy Spirit from me.

Restore unto me the joy of Thy salvation, and with Thy Governing Spirit establish me.

I shall teach transgressors Thy ways, and the ungodly shall turn back unto Thee.

Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, O God, Thou God of my salvation; my tongue shall rejoice in Thy righteousness.

O Lord, thou shalt open my lips, and my mouth shall declare Thy praise.

For if Thou hadst desired sacrifice, I had given it; with whole-burnt offerings Thou shalt not be pleased.

A sacrifice unto God is a broken spirit; a heart that is broken and humbled God will not despise.

*Then the priest commemorateth those for whom the supplication is chanted
(If a reader's service, we replace this Ectenia with: "Lord, have mercy." (Twelve times))*

Priest: Have mercy on us, O God, according to Thy great mercy, we pray Thee, hearken and have mercy.

The choir, after each petition:
Lord, have mercy, Lord have mercy, Lord have Mercy.

--Again we pray for pious and Orthodox Christians.

--Again we pray for our Bishop (Name), and for all our brotherhood in Christ.

--Again we pray for mercy, life, peace, health, salvation, visitation, pardon and remission of the sins of the servants of God, all pious and Orthodox Christians who dwell and sojourn in this city, the parishioners and benefactors of this holy temple, and all that serve, chant, labor and gather herein; and for the servants of God (Names), and for the forgiveness of their every transgression, both voluntary and involuntary.

--For a merciful and man-befriending God art Thou, and unto Thee do we send up glory, to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and unto the ages of ages.

Choir: Amen.

Then we chant the following Troparia:

Sixth Tone

Have mercy on us, O Lord, have mercy on us; for lacking as we are in all defense, this supplication do we sinners offer unto Thee,
as our Master: Have mercy
on us.

Glory to the Father...

Lord, have mercy on us, for in Thee have we placed all our trust. Be not wroth with us greatly, nor do Thou remember our iniquities; but look upon us even now,
since Thou art

compassionate, and do thou redeem us from our enemies.
For Thou art our God and we Thy people; all are the works of Thy hands, and upon Thy Name have we called.

Both now and ever...

Theotokion

Do thou open the portal of compassion to us, O most blessed Theotokos; for hoping in thee, let us not fail, we pray; through thee may we be delivered from adversities, for thou art the salvation of the Christian race.

Lord, have mercy. (Twelve times)

Do good, O Lord, in Thy good pleasure unto Zion, and let the walls of Jerusalem be builded.

Then shalt Thou be pleased with a sacrifice of righteousness, with oblation
and whole-burnt offerings.

Then shall they offer bullocks upon Thine altar.

And then we chant the Canon:

Heirmos

Traversing the water as on dry land, and thereby escaping from the toils of Egypt's land, the Israelites cried aloud, proclaiming:
Unto our God and Redeemer let us
now sing.

Most Holy Mother of God, save us.

By many temptations am I distressed; in search of salvation, unto thee have I taken flight; O
Mother of the Word, thou Ever-virgin, from all ordeals and afflictions deliver me.

Most Holy Mother of God, save us.

Attacks of the passions disquiet me; my soul to repletion has been filled with despondency, Bestill

them, O Maiden, with the calmness of thine own Son and thy God, O all-blameless one.

Glory to the Father...

To Christ God, the Savior, thou
gavest birth; I beg thee, O Virgin, from afflictions deliver me; for now, unto thee I flee for refuge, bringing to thee both my soul and my reasoning.

Both now and ever...

Diseased is my body and my soul; do thou make me worthy of divine guidance and thy care, O
thou who alone art God's Mother, for thou are good and the Birthgiver of the Good.

O all ye arrays of Angelic Hosts, with the holy Baptist,
the Apostles' twelve-numbered band, all the Saints together, as well as God's Birthgiver, pray make ye intercession for our deliverance.

Reader:

Holy God, Holy Mighty, Holy Immortal, have mercy on us.
Holy God, Holy Mighty, Holy Immortal, have mercy on us.
Holy God, Holy Mighty, Holy Immortal, have mercy on us.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, both now and ever, and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

O Most Holy Trinity, have mercy on us. O Lord, blot out our sins. O Master, pardon our iniquities. O Holy One, visit and heal our infirmities for Thy name's sake.

Lord, have mercy. (Three times)

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, Both now and ever...

Our Father, Who art in the Heavens, hallowed be Thy Name. Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.

PRIEST: For Thine...

Higher than the heavens
above art thou, and thou art much purer than the radiance of the sun; for thou hast redeemed us out of the curse that held us, O
Mistress of creation, thee do
we magnify.

From the great abundance of all my sins, ill am I in body, ailing also am I in soul. Thee have I as refuge; do thou therefore help me, O hope of all the hopeless, for thou art full of grace.

O Lady and Mother of Christ
our God, receive supplication from us wretches who beg of thee that thou make entreaty

unto the One born from thee;
O Mistress of creation, do thou intercede for us. Now we chant with eagerness unto thee with this ode most joyful, O all-hymned Mother of our God; together with the Baptist and all the saintly
choirs, beseech, O Theotokos, that we find clemency.

Speechless be the lips of the impious who refuse to reverence thy revered icon
which is known by the name Directress, and which has been depicted for us by the Apostle Luke the Evangelist.

Heirmos

Of the vault of heavens art Thou, O Lord, Fashioner; so, too, of the Church art Thou founder. Do Thou establish me in unfeigned love for Thee, Who art the height of things sought for, the staff of the faithful,
O Thou Only Friend of man.

Most Holy Mother of God, save us.

I have thee as the shelter and the defense of my life, thee, the Theotokos and Virgin; pilot and govern me into thy sheltered port,
for thou art author of good things and staff of the faithful, O thou only lauded one.

Most Holy Mother of God, save us.

I beseech thee, O Virgin, do thou dispel far from me all of the distress of despair and turbulence in my soul; for thou, O Bride of God, hast given birth to the Lord Christ, Who is Prince of peace, O

thou only all-blameless one.

Glory to the Father...

Since thou brought forth Him
Who is our Benefactor, the cause of good, from the wealth of thy loving-kindness do thou pour forth
on all; for thou canst do all things, since thou didst bear Christ, the One Who is mighty in power, for blessed of God art thou.

Both now and ever...

With most grievous diseases and with corrupt passions, too, I am put to trial, O Virgin, come thou unto mine aid; for I know thee to be an inexhaustible treasure of unfailing healing, O only allblameless one.

Preserve and save, O Theotokos,
thy servants from every danger;
after God do all of us for refuge
flee unto thee; a firm rampart art
thou and our protection.

In thy good will, look thou on me, O all-hymned Theotokos; and do thou behold my body's grievous infirmity, and heal thou the cause of my soul's sorrow.

And then we chant, in the Eighth Tone:

It is truly meet to call thee blessed, the Theotokos, the ever-blessed and all immaculate and Mother of our God. More honorable than the Cherubim, and beyond compare more glorious than the Seraphim, thee who without corruption gavest birth to God the Word, the very Theotokos,

thee do we magnify.

Ode Nine

Heirmos

Most rightly we confess thee as our God's Birthgiver, we who through thee have been saved, O
thou Virgin most pure; with choirs of bodiless Angels, thee do we magnify.

Most Holy Mother of God, save us.

The torrent of my weeping spurn not with refusal, for thou didst give birth to Him Who doth take away
all tears from every face, O thou Virgin, for He is Christ indeed.

Most Holy Mother of God, save us.

Do thou, O Virgin Maiden, fill my heart with gladness, for thou are she who received all the fullness of joy, and made to vanish away all sorrow of sinfulness.

Most Holy Mother of God, save us.

A haven and protection, and a wall unshaken, and a rejoicing and shelter and place of retreat do thou become, O thou Virgin, for those who flee to thee.

Glory to the Father...

Illumine with the radiance of thy light, O Virgin, all those who piously call thee the Mother of God, and do thou banish away all darkness of ignorance.

Both now and ever...

Brought low am I, O Virgin, in a place of sickness, and in a dwelling of anguish; grant healing to me, transforming all of my illness into full healthfulness.

Then the priest commemorateth those for whom the supplication is chanted (If a reader's service, we replace this Ectenia with: "Lord, have mercy." (Twelve times))

Priest: Have mercy on us, O God, according to Thy great mercy, we pray Thee, hearken and have mercy.

The choir, after each petition:
Lord, have mercy, Lord have mercy, Lord have Mercy.

--Again we pray for pious and Orthodox Christians.

--Again we pray for our Bishop (Name), and for all our brotherhood in Christ.

--Again we pray for mercy, life,
peace, health, salvation, visitation, pardon and remission of the sins of the servants of God, all pious and Orthodox Christians who dwell and sojourn in this city, the parishioners and benefactors of this holy temple, and all that serve,

chant, labour and gather herein;
and for the servants of God (Names), and for the forgiveness of their every transgression, both voluntary and involuntary.

--For a merciful and man-befriending God art Thou, and unto Thee do we send up glory, to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and unto the ages of ages.

Choir: Amen.

We then chant the following Sessional Hymn:

Second Tone "Seeking things on high"

O fervent advocate, invincible battlement, fountain of mercy, and sheltering retreat for the world, earnestly we cry to thee:
Lady Mother of God, hasten thou, and save us from all imperilment; for thou alone art our speedy protectress.

Ode Eight

Heirmos

The King of Heaven, Whom all the hosts of Angels hymn with their chants and praises of glory,
praise ye and exalt Him to the ages
forever.

Most Holy Mother of God, save us.

Do not disdain those who seek the help that thou dost grant, for,
O Virgin Maiden, they do hymn thee, and they all exalt thee unto ages forever.

Most Holy Mother of God, save us.

On all who hymn thee with faith,
O Virgin, and exalt thy truly ineffable Offspring, thou pourest forth a great abundance of thy cures and healings.

Glory to the Father...

All the diseases that plague my soul dost thou make well, and the sufferings of the flesh thou healest
also; wherefore, O thou Maiden
full of grace, I glorify thee.

Both now and ever...

All the assaultings of the temptations dost thou quell, and the onslaughts of the passions dost thou banish, wherefore do we hymn thee to all ages, O Virgin.

Ode Seven - Eighth Tone

Heirmos

Once from out of Judea did the Children go down to the land of Babylon; the fire of the furnace they trampled down while chanting by their faith in the Trinity: O God of our Fathers,
blessed are Thou.

Most Holy Mother of God, save us.

Having willed thus, O Savior, to dispense our salvation in Thine economy, Thou dwelt within the Maid's womb, and unto all creation as protectress Thou showed her forth; O God of our Fathers,
blessed are Thou.

Most Holy Mother of God, save us.

Make request, O pure Mother, to thy Son who hath willed to grant mercy unto us, to rescue from transgressions and from the soul's defilement those who cry out most faithfully: O God of our Fathers,

blessed are Thou.

Glory to the Father...

A fount of incorruption and a tower of safety is she who gave Thee birth; a treasure of salvation and portal of repentance hast Thou proved her to them that shout: O
God of our Fathers, blessed are Thou.

Both now and ever...

Deign to grant restoration from diseases of body and soul to those who run to thy divine protection with faith, O Theotokos, and thus grant them recovery; for Mother of Christ our Savior are thou.

Heirmos

I have hearkened and heard, O Lord, of Thy dispensation's most awesome mystery; and I came to knowledge of Thy works, and I sang the praise of Thy Divinity.

Most Holy Mother of God, save us.

Lull the tempest of all my sins,
and bestill the raging of passions
with thy calm; for progenitress art thou of Him Who is Lord and Helmsman, O thou Bride of God.

Most Holy Mother of God, save us.

O bestow, out of the abyss of thy great compassion, on me, thy suppliant; for thou brought forth
One compassionate Who is Savior of all who sing hymns to thee.

Glory to the Father...

While delighting, O spotless one,
in thy many favors, a hymn of thankfulness do we all raise up in song to thee, knowing thee to be the Mother of our God.

Both now and ever...

Having thee as our staff and hope, and as our salvation's unshaken battlement, from all manner of adversity are we then redeemed, O thou all-lauded one.

Ode FIVE

Heirmos

Lord, enlighten us by Thy precepts and by Thy commands;
and by the power of Thy lofty arm
bestow Thy peace upon us all,
since Thou art the Friend of man.

Most Holy Mother of God, save us.

Pure one, fill my heart with rejoicing unto plentitude; and grant thine undefiled felicity, since thou didst give birth unto Him Who is the cause of joy.

Most Holy Mother of God, save us.

Come, deliver us out of dangers,
O pure Mother of God, since thou art mother of deliverance, and of the peace which doth surpass all human reasoning.

Glory to the Father...

Dissipate the gloom of my trespasses, O Bride of God, with the clear brightness of thy radiance; for thou didst bear the Light divine which was before all time.

Both now and ever...

Heal me, O pure one, of the sickness which the passions bring,
and make me worthy of thy guardiancy, and by thy prayers and intercessions grant health to me.

Ode Six

Heirmos

Entreaty do I pour forth unto the Lord, and to Him do I proclaim all my sorrows, for many woes fill my heart to repletion, and lo, my life unto Hades hath now drawn nigh; like Jonah do I pray to Thee: Raise me up from corruption, O Lord my God.

Most Holy Mother of God, save us.

My nature, held by corruption and by death, has He saved from out of death and corruption, for unto death He Himself hast submitted. Wherefore, O Virgin, do thou intercede with Him Who is in truth thy Lord and Son to redeem me from enemies' wickedness.

Most Holy Mother of God, save us.

I know thee as the protection of my life and most safe fortification,

O Virgin; disperse the horde of my many temptations, and put to silence demonic audacity, unceasingly I pray to thee: from corruption of passions deliver me.

Glory to the Father ...

A bulwark of safe retreat art thou to us, and of souls art thou the perfect salvation, and a relief in distresses, O Maiden, and in thy light do we ever exult with joy. O Lady, do thou also now, from all passions and perils deliver me.

Both now and ever ...

Bedridden, I lie supine with sickness now, and no healing for my flesh is existent except for thee, who didst bear the world's Savior, our God, the Healer of every infirmity; I pray to thee, for thou are good: from corruption of illnesses raise me up.

Preserve and save, O Theotokos,
thy servants from every danger;
after God do all of us for refuge
flee to thee; a firm rampart art
thou and our protection.

O spotless one, who inexpressibly in the last days didst
by a word bring forth the Word, do thou make request of Him, as one who hath motherly boldness.

The priest chants "Save O God". The Ectenia is not said.

(If a reader's service, we replace this Ectenia with: "Lord, have mercy." (Twelve times))

Priest: Save, O God, Thy people, & bless Thine inheritance; visit Thy world with mercy & compassions;
exalt the horn of Orthodox Christians, & send down upon us
Thine abundant mercies:

through the intercessions of our immaculate Lady Theotokos & Ever-Virgin Mary; through the power of the life-creating Cross; through the mediations of the honorable,

Sixth Tone: "Having placed their every hope"

O entrust me not, I pray, to any human protection, O our Lady, holy one, but do thou accept the prayer of thy supplicant. Sorrow has fettered me, and I am unable to endure and bear the demons' darts; a shelter have I not, neither place to run, I, the wretched one. Embattled from all sides am I, and no consolation have I but thee. Mistress of creation, protection and hope of faithful ones: Turn not away when I pray to thee; do that which will profit me.

From thee is no one is turned away ashamed and empty who doth run to thee for refuge, O pure Virgin Theotokos; but he asketh the favor and receiveth the gift from thee, unto the profit of his own request.

The transformation of the afflicted and the relief of those in sickness are thou in truth, O Virgin Theotokos; save thy people and thy flock, thou who are the peace of the embattled and who art the calm of the storm-driven, the only protectress of those who believe.

*Then the priest commemorateth those for whom the supplication is chanted
(If a reader's service, we replace this Ectenia with: "Lord, have mercy." (Twelve times))*

Priest: Have mercy on us, O God, according to Thy great mercy, we pray Thee, hearken and have mercy.

The choir, after each petition:
Lord, have mercy, Lord have mercy, Lord have Mercy.

--Again we pray for pious and Orthodox Christians.

--Again we pray for our Bishop (Name), and for all our brotherhood in Christ.

--Again we pray for mercy, life, peace, health, salvation, visitation, pardon and remission of the sins of the servants of God, all pious and Orthodox Christians who dwell and sojourn in this city, the parishioners and benefactors of this holy temple, and all that serve, chant, labour and gather herein; and for the servants of God (Names), and for the forgiveness of their every transgression, both voluntary and involuntary.

--For a merciful and man-befriending God art Thou, and unto Thee do we send up glory, to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and unto the ages of ages.

Choir: Amen.

Kontakion Second Tone

O protection of Christians
that cannot be put to shame,
mediation unto the Creator
most constant: O despise not the suppliant voices of those who have sinned; but be thou quick, O good one, to come unto our aid, who in faith cry unto thee:

Hasten to intercession, and speed thou to make supplication, thou who dost
ever protect, O Theotokos,
them that honor thee.

And then we chant the following hymns:

Second Tone

Glory to the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit

O Father, Word, and Spirit,
the Trinity in Unity: blot out the multitude of mine
offences.

Both now and ever...

By the intercessions of the Theotokos, O Merciful One,
blot out the multitude of my
offences.

Have mercy on me, O God,
according to Thy great mercy; and according to the multitude of Thy compassions blot out my transgression.

In those days, Mary arose and went into the hill country with haste, into a city of Judah, and entered the house of Zacharias and greeted Elizabeth. And it came to pass that, when Elizabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit. And she spake out with a loud voice and said, "Blessed are thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb! And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? For behold, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in my ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy. And blessed is she who believed, for there shall be a fulfillment of those things which have been spoken to her from the Lord." And Mary said: "My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Savior. For He hath looked upon the lowliness of His handmaiden; for behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed. For the Mighty One hath done great things to me, and holy is His name". And Mary abode with her about three months, and returned to her house.

Choir: Glory to Thee, O Lord, glory to Thee.

Fourth Tone

From my youth do many passions war against me, but do Thou Thyself defend and save me, O my Savior. (Twice)

Ye haters of Zion shall be shamed by the Lord; for, like grass, by the fire shall ye be withered. (Twice)

Glory to the Father...

In the Holy Spirit, every soul is quickened, and through cleansing is exalted and made radiant by the Triple Unity in a hidden sacred manner.

Both now and ever...

By the Holy Spirit, the streams of grace gush forth, watering all creation for the begetting of life.

Prokeimenon

Fourth Tone

I shall commemorate thy name in every generation and generation. (Twice, first the clergy, then the choir)

Hearken, O daughter, and see, and incline thine ear; and forget thine own people, and thy father's house; and the King shall greatly desire thy beauty.

I shall commemorate thy name in every generation and generation.

And again, the clergy the first part, and the choir the second part:

I shall commemorate thy name...

in every generation and generation.

Priest: And that we may be deemed worthy to hear the holy Gospel, let us beseech the Lord our God.

Choir: Lord, have mercy, Lord have mercy, Lord have mercy.

Priest: Wisdom, aright! Let us hear the Holy Gospel. Peace be unto all!

Choir: And to thy spirit.

Priest: The reading is from the holy Gospel according to Saint Luke.

Choir: Glory to Thee, O Lord, glory to Thee.

Priest: Let us attend.
